

Learning, Caring and Growing Together in Faith.

St Andrew's C of E Infant School

Come Together Church Group – Riley

Every Tuesday after school, Riley works with a group of volunteers at his church to help asylum seeking and refugee children to feel welcome in Leyland.

Riley said:

“Come Together group is important because it gives people comfort and makes them feel welcome for a celebration. People can feel safe because of the wars and police in their own countries.”

'God is my strength, in whom I trust.' Psalm 18